I found recently a documentary about true mount Sinai which was posted on 17th December 2018. Super awesome to see the mount itself but also other things related.

I like that they show the split rock. You couldn't need any stronger evidence than that, although it also is sadly a monument of Moses's sin in disobeying the LORD and striking the rock twice.

That rock is stunning. Didn't know it's that big from close view, at 16:30.

Yeah, I had no idea the rock was that huge.
